U. S. MARINE BOXER BEATS PAL MOORE

Sergeant Thompson in Decisive Victory—Gussie Lewis Chased From Ring

Atlantic City, May 2.—Al Thompson, of Cincinnati, defeated Pal Moore, of Philadelphia, in an eight-round bout last night at the Atlantic City Sporting Club. Thompson, who is a sergeant in the United States marines and a protégé of Major A. J. Drexel Biddle, won all the way and had easily five rounds of the match. Moore took a lot of punishment, and only his experience saved him from being knocked out.

Eddie Morgan, of England, took the popular decision over Young Robidoux, of Philadelphia, in eight rounds. Morgan forced the fighting and put in twice as many punches as his opponent. Gussie Lewis, of Philadelphia, was chased out of the ring in his scheduled eight-round bout with Preston Brown, of Philadelphia. Lewis wouldn't fight and his tactics disgusted the big crowd.

The day will be further featured by the fact that all of Pennsylvania's students will blossom out in straw hats. Following the baseball game the Yale and Pennsylvania lacrosse teams will give an exhibition of this strenuous Indian game.

The baseball game will begin promptly at 3 o'clock, and the lacrosse men will take the field the minute this game is over. At 1 o'clock there will be football practice under the direction of Coach Bob Felwell and Captain Bert Bell.

There is a lot of rivalry between Harvard and Pennsylvania in baseball. It will be the first meeting of championship nature for either team, and each is anxious to win. It will bring together two of the very best twirlers in college ranks. "Babe" Felton for Harvard, and John Titzel for Pennsylvania. Felton, who is a right-hander, has been specially prepared for this game.
